

Cottage Grove student receives honor

Cottage Grove, Wis. - November 15, 2007 -

Jenel Heise of Cottage Grove was honored as Insight School's "Student of the Month-Social Studies" for September 2007.

The Student of the Month is selected by the instructors of each academic area in recognition of a student's achievement during the previous month.

"Jenel demonstrates a remarkable commitment to learning," said Bill Beesley, Principal of Insight Schools. "Her solid school performance and positive attitude will go a long way towards her future success."

Outside of school, Jenel enjoys spending time with her dog and three horses. On weekends, she can be seen at area horseback riding competitions.

Insight Schools is a full-time, tuition-free online Wisconsin public high school open to any high school student in the state. Insight is a charter school made possible through partnership with the Grantsburg Public School District and the University of Phoenix.

For more information about Insight Schools, visit www.insightwi.net or call 1-866-800-0027.